Many students on the path have argued about desire.* Some find it the source of all discomfort; holding their passions in bondage to the earthly, physical planes. Others find it as the scent of the flower; using desire as the indicator, much like a thermometer on a frozen winter morning, to show the true feelings of the heart. My teacher once spoke of desire, "Desire! The giver and glory of pain and love. Once I master you, I face the truth of the Universe!" Desire is truly at all times the giver and glory of pain and love, and is the measure of our spiritual agility. Desire can lead us temporarily off of the path or startlingly push us back on.

Desire, inevitably, returns us to the creative force, the OMNIPRESENT source. When we become frozen or weak in our journey here, you can rest assured desire will return us to our home. All who are created from the love that fills all of life, yearn to return to that love. From the point of love within the heart of God, we travel throughout the worlds of form, seeking protection and union through the love that created us. It is the desire for the love of God, that I shall begin this lesson. Open your hearts, and perhaps you will feel the fluttering of the pure flame of desire.

A young student traveled the path until he had met a man he knew would be his guru. He followed the teacher like a lost puppy, begging him to take him into his study. Soon, the teacher, wearied by the young man's constant attention, asked him to follow him to the river. Both walking out to waist-deep water, the teacher quickly plunged the head of the young man under until he kicked and bubbled for life-giving air! When he finally let him up, the young student gasped for breath, and after several minutes of shock and disbelief asked the older man, "Why did you do that?" Then the wise man replied, "When you desire GOD, like you desired that breath of air while you were under the water, you are ready then to follow the path with me."

Desire works this way for all of us. Leading us innocently into waters, fires and earthquakes, the desire, which was once fueled by greed, ambition, or avarice, upon reflection and experience, seeks purification. Initiation, through desire, is the most tempering of fires but also the most essential. There will be many fires that you will walk through while you travel the path. The path is strewn with broken dreams and unfulfilled expectations, all discarded when realized they are the frivolous garments covering the prize inside, the fruit of the nut, the OMNIPOTENT truth. It is truth that we come to value as stalwart followers of the path and plan.

We are created of this truth and while we desire to hold it unto ourselves, we cannot. For that would destroy us. §

Yet truth, universally brings us all to the understanding of the causeless cause and evolves to hold the spark of desireless desire.

When we can serve that cause without expectation or personal desire, we serve from the point that we departed from. This is the point of love and truth and we accept our role as a co-creator, mirrored in the image and likeness of our creator.

The Five-Fold Path

Those of you who accept the role of servant, expect but one thing, you will know freedom. Your purpose is to serve the will of God through humanity and the worlds of form. Your desireless form will know the Christ and you will build the bridge between the worlds of form and spirit. Through your open eyes you will open the doors of the soul. Through your open ears you will attain perception. Carry always the symbol of the star, for you are divine man!

Should you walk the path of the teacher profess your service to all of life! Through synchronicity, thought and meditation you become the awakener. You will know the ONE, the consciousness of ALL and there will be your source of inspiration and experience. Allow the upper lid of your all seeing eye to be the teacher, allow the lower lid to be the student. Be watchful that you do not become too narrow or slanted, but keep your eyes wisely open. Upon your shoulder rests the owl, you who hold the eyes for humanity to recognize divinity for all.

"When we can serve that cause without expectation or personal desire, we serve from the point that we departed from.

This is the point of love and truth and we accept our role as a co-creator, mirrored in the image and likeness of our creator."

~Master K. H.

Should you walk the path of the healer, you will hold the keys to understand desire through the development of the senses, compassion and the intelligence of diagnosis. You will profess to the wholeness of body and mind as a Peaceful Warrior who carries a sword of love that applies and directs energy. Your source is the Mother God who knows only purification and sacrifice joined with the great reward of alchemy. You walk the path in service to divinity, knowing that the light that shines, shines for all as ONE. As the healed carry the potency of the healer, you carry the potency of those healed. The swirling circles of LIFE continuous, the lotus and the rose, are your symbols.

Should you walk the path of the prophet, know that your purpose is for the healing of the nations. You will constantly be a catalyst who will work with the tool of consciousness for change and choice. Check carefully at all times your intent; dilute it not, for your skill lies in the strength of your balance and interpretation. You know your source as spirit and seek the equalization in divinity-as above, so below. Once you choose this path, do not turn back. "Great ones fall back even from the threshold unable to sustain the weight of their responsibility, unable to pass on. Therefore, look forward always with awe and trembling to this moment and be prepared for the battle." The path of the prophet purposely surrenders all animal desire for the symbol and principle they carry, the dove of peace.

Should you walk the path of the priest know that your purpose will seal divinity. Through ceremony, prayer and song you transform and harmonize, knowing your source as the Father God. You are the leader of groups who also knows and understands the sound of silence. "Listen only to the voice which is soundless. Look only on that which is invisible alike to the inner and the outer sense." You flow within; and you flow without. You tread the path of the adept, seeking and knowing only perfection. You are the perfect man, known through ancient numerology in the number 9. You are the animal beast 666,  $(6+6+6=18=9)$  who has chosen to regenerate, 144,000,  $(1+4+4+0+0+0=9)$ . Your symbol is the Tree of Life and the Philosopher's Stone.

Let me tabulate again this five-fold path of desire, should you choose to tread:

SERVANT

"The working of the Divine Plan."

TEACHER

"The recognition of Divinity."

HEALER

"The service to Divinity."

PROPHET

"The equalization in Divinity."

PRIEST

"The sealing of Divinity."

The Course Of Service Is Required

Know that each of these courses is required in the journey on the path. Each of them are steamed and fueled by desire and inevitably lead us back to the source of CREATOR LOVE. So that we know the truth of desireless desire, we approach each of these roles through embodiment after embodiment, through the service of the rays and the roles of desire that we choose. In our mission to know truth, each role, much like the rays, presents itself in service to the next. For instance, the role of the servant paves the pathway for the teacher; the teacher paves the pathway for the healer; the healer paves the pathway for the prophet; the prophet paves the pathway for the priest; and the priest paves the pathway for the adept, he who listens to the voice of silence.

In many instances, we blend the roles of desire; seeking an understanding of TRUTH and LIFE, much as the rays blend their septanate qualities for our sacred mission. To gain a better understanding of the correlation between the rays and the roles of desire, I present this table:

SERVANT	.....	RAYS 1 & 4
TEACHER	.....	RAYS 2 & 3
HEALER	.....	RAYS 2, 3 & 5
PROPHET	.....	RAYS 3, 4 & 6
PRIEST	.....	RAYS 5, 6 & 7

The student on the path chooses one or several of these forms of selfless service to understand the role of desire and the evolution of the mighty spark of OMNISCIENCE. Gently and gracefully, when the student intentionally chooses to drop self-centeredness to the call of service on the path, he holds the keys to emergent evolution. When the human, divine god, being can no longer be denied expression, the hold that the animal consciousness once held, drops into slumber. This great victory achieved allows a greater service. Then, the call of the Lodge, dedicated to the service and spiritual upliftment of humanity opens your ears.

An Invitation

I close by extending an invitation to all of you to join with us. The need is great among humanity today. There is still needless suffering fueled by the fires of ignorance and deception. Quietly listen, and you will hear the call in your heart. We are not a religious group or sect, however, we are a service group of elder brothers and sisters who have been known throughout mankind's history as the Great White Lodge. Through the medium of consciousness we have merged our efforts and energies aimed towards the unity of all of life.

Our goal is simple, and our work is hard. It is never promised to be easy, however, the reward immeasurable. Come, through prayer and meditation if you feel the urge of the mission within.

A new cycle awaits humanity. It is a cycle filled with growth, learning and life. Painfully and lovingly, sometimes this growth is achieved through disease, poverty and destruction. However, within your heart lies the gentle revolution which can redirect the course of such events.

This is a revolution armed with the power of service, charity and love. If you should turn your back now, know that timelessly we await.

Let us join in wisdom to extinguish ignorance and inequity.

Let us join in love to extinguish suffering.

Let us join in service to extinguish greed and avarice.

Let us join in charity to extinguish poverty.

Let us join in harmony to extinguish disease.

As our ears are opened and our eyes begin to see, let us join as ONE LIGHT, in our hearts and minds. May this light of wisdom serve all. May this light of truth and justice prevail. May the law be written in hearts and joined through harmony, brotherhood and love.

Timelessly and agelessly, the unknown poet sings, "O, let not the flame die out! Cherished age after age in its dark cavern - in its holy temples cherished. Fed by pure ministers of love - let not the flame die out!"

* Desire is also known as Jurisdiction Nine as presented in New World Atlas, Volume One. In that teaching, Saint Germain and Sanat Kumara present desire as the soul's spark of creativity. "Dear Ones, desire is your source! Without it you could not be. It is the seed, it is the spark, it is the source of origin. It is scientific and it is melodic." In Eternal Massage, Peter Canty delivers a profound insight on desire. "A good way to get a better feeling for the universal desire I speak of is to consider the concept of weight. Weight is a measure of the desire in any given body to be in an equilibrium condition. A helium balloon has the same desire, but rises to find its balancing mate high in the sky. It is this same desire that motivates your actions, the seeming difference being that you intellectualize your desires and non-human creatures don't, they simply obey the Law. (Ultimately, you do as well, as the process called 'thinking' obeys the same Law, ultimately is the Law.) The scientific name for the spiritual force of 'desire' is 'gravity'. Is it any wonder science today has no grasp of the real nature of 'gravity'? It is gravity that brings you to me, a bird to her nest, rain to the earth and vapors to the sky, a rocket to the moon, a bee to your forehead, you to MacDonald's for lunch and Dr.'s into your life for cures..." (page 57)

Walter Russell summed it up, "Desire is the fulcrum of the Universe."

§ To hold back the truth or to adorn it as belonging to an individual or group is to adulterate it. The truth then remains hidden in ignorance, superstition and fear. Manly Hall writes in, The Secret Teachings Of All Ages, "Through education-spiritual, mental, moral, and physical-man will learn to release living truths from their lifeless coverings. The perfect government of the earth must be patterned eventually after that divine government by which the universe is ordered. In that day when perfect order is reestablished, with peace universal and good triumphant, men will no longer seek for happiness, for they shall find it welling up within themselves. Dead hopes, dead aspirations, dead virtues shall rise from their graves, and the Spirit of Beauty and Goodness repeatedly slain by ignorant men shall again be the Master of Work. Then shall sages sit upon the seats of the mighty and the gods walk with men." (page 80)
